Answer

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (CH. VIDYASAGAR RAO)

(a): As on 1.7.2001, an amount of Rs. 1171.61 crore (approx.) are outstanding against the different States/UTs on account of deployment of Central Para Military Forces (CPMFs) and an amount of Rs. 645.84 crore are outstanding against the Public Sector Undertakings (PSUs) on account of deployment of CISF. As regards, period of pendency the dues outstanding for more than 3 years, 3 years to one year and less than one year are as indicated in Annexure 'I'.

(b): The rates of recovery presently are Rs. 9.43 crore per annum per Bn for CPMFs and Rs. 11.57 crore per annum per Bn for Rapid Action Force (RAF) for non-exempted category States. In addition actual cost on transportation/movement of these Bns are also recovered. The exempted category States/UTs are as under:-

I.

1. J & K
2. Nagaland
3. Sikkim
4. Mizoram
5. Manipur
6. Tripura
7. Meghalalya
8. Himachal Pradesh
9. Arunachal Pradesh

II. Assam to pay only 10% of the deployment cost.

III. UTs without legislatures.

For CISF deployed in PSUs, the actual deployment costs are recovered. In addition cost of supervisory establishment is recovered by way of supervision charges at the rate of 9.85% on the total amount, (except Leave salary contribution and Pension Contribution).

(c): The deployment costs are being recovered but due to financial constraints faced by different States, the same have not been realised fully. In the case of dues of CISF on the PSUs, dues are being recovered. However, some of the PSUs have not paid their dues as they have either gone sick or are closed or facing financial difficulty. However, the matter is periodically taken up with the defaulting PSUs as also the Ministries/Departments administratively concerned with such PSUs. This Ministry has been regularly pursuing the State Governments and the PSUs to pay their dues. In addition, releases made by this Ministry to States under different schemes are also being adjusted against the outstanding amounts.

(d) & (e): No Sir.
